Scenes from Obon 2023

Did you meet our new Supervising Minister
Reverend Cynthia (Cyndi) Jikaku Yasaki
From the White River Buddhist Temple on June 16th?
We look forward to her next visit in September

Rev. Yasaki will visit us three times in 2024, give Dharma Talks, and work with our Minister Assistants through out the year.

Rev. Cyndi Yasaki was born and raised in the city of Torrance, California and grew up going to the Gardena Buddhist Church where she became interested in learning about Buddhism. After graduating from high school, Rev. Cyndi attended the Youth Buddhist Retreat at Sacramento Betsuin in 2009 where she became a Youth Minister's Assistant and received the Buddhist Name Shaku Jikaku. In 2013 she became a Certified Minister's Assistant at the Gardena Buddhist Church. Rev. Cyndi graduated from San Jose State University with a Bachelor's in Science in Health Sciences with a minor in Japanese in 2015.

Two years later she started her studies at the Institute of Buddhist Studies. Rev. Cyndi completed her Certificate in Shin Buddhism in Spring 2019 and received the first level of ordination, Tokudo, in Kyoto, Japan in Summer 2019. She married her husband Rev. Tadao Koyama in 2020 and moved with him to Tacoma, WA upon his ministerial assignment as the Resident Minister of the Tacoma Buddhist Temple.

Rev. Cyndi received her Masters in Arts in Buddhist Studies from the Institute of Buddhist Studies and her second level of ordination, Kyoshi, in 2022.

In trying to stay healthy, Rev. Cyndi tries her best to practice taiko once a week. When not busy, Rev. Cyndi likes to relax with her husband and their cat, Irvin.

Congratulations to Jinny Worley

Message from the White River Buddhist Temple

We are thrilled to be hosting this year's 2024 Northwest District Buddhist Convention on September 13th - 15th at the Muckleshoot Resort and Casino, in Auburn, WA! (<https://muckleshootcasino.com/>)

Featuring keynote speaker Reverend Candice Shibata of the Buddhist Church of Stockton, the convention's theme is Connections: Building for Tomorrow, where we hope to explore the historical interdependence in our community, as well as how we can foster relationships in the future.

The website and registration is now live at: www.nwdconvention.org.

Each year, there is a get-together of the NW District Shin Buddhist Temples in WA, ID & OR for a convention with services, workshops and a banquet. This is an opportunity to hear messages and take workshops from ministers that you have not met, and make new friends from the other Temples. We hope to rent a van from Spokane to Auburn.

The Summer Pacific Seminar is hosted by BCA, IBS & JSIO. Please join us for this very interesting discussion with our three panel speakers.

Can We Grow Relationship Lotuses from Muddy Conflicts?

Strategies for Working with Conflict & Disagreement

August 10, 2024 | 11:00-12:45 PM, Online

GUEST SPEAKER

Gregg Krech

Founder of the ToDo Institute, a Naikan Education and Retreat Center in Middlebury Vermont, and one of the leading authorities on Japanese psychology in North America.

Conflicts are often muddy. Relationships are tricky. Issues can be sensitive. How do we navigate this landscape without sinking into the mud? Is it possible to grow a lotus under these circumstances? Managing a conflict offers the prospect of increased suffering, but the promise of growth, greater understanding and, in the end, a stronger relationship.

In this seminar, Gregg will offer some ideas of what to do and what not to do, based on his experience with Japanese Psychology and Buddhism.

SPOKANE BUDDHIST TEMPLE 2024 MEMBERSHIP

We are profoundly grateful for your interest in the Spokane Buddhist Temple. By joining or renewing your membership, you honor the legacy of those who founded this Temple in 1945 and help provide a broad and deep base of support to sustain the sangha far into the future. Your membership pledge is an acknowledgment of your commitment to bringing the Dharma to the Spokane area so that everyone interested can hear the teachings of the Buddha and learn about the rich heritage of Jodo Shinshu Buddhism.

Your pledge is a concrete example of dana, or selfless giving. Dana is usually listed first among the Buddhist paramitas, or virtues to be cultivated. At the Spokane Buddhist Temple (SBT), this takes the form of pledges and monetary contributions, gifts in kind, and volunteer efforts to maintain the Temple and sustain the sangha.

Membership Levels and Benefits

Sustaining Members pledge $300 per year or more.

Young Members are under 30 and pledge $50 per year.

Both sustaining and young members are eligible to serve as Trustees and can vote in all Temple elections. They are members of our parent organization, the Buddhist Churches of America, and receive the Buddhist Churches of America's (BCA) monthly publication The Wheel of Dharma.

When To Pledge and How To Pay

Renewals are due in November. This facilitates our planning and budgeting for the upcoming year. New members who join earlier in the year can pledge a prorated amount of $25 per month; please consult the SBT treasurer or bookkeeper.

Pledge payments can be made in the following ways:

check

credit card

e-check from your financial institution

cash

You can choose the number of separate payments you make:

annual (1 payment)

semi-annual (2 payments)

quarterly (4 payments)

monthly (12 payments)

Where Your Money Goes

Membership pledges and other cash donations from sangha members make up close to a third of SBT's annual revenue. Although as a religious nonprofit we do not pay property tax on the Temple, our expenses include utilities, insurance, building and grounds maintenance, security, travel and honoraria for visiting ministers, subsidies for ministers' education, and dues to the BCA and NW District. SBT spends a total of about $60,000 each year to bring the Dharma to Spokane.

Tax Info

If you itemize your Federal income tax, you may be able to deduct your contributions to the Temple. If you take a Required Minimum Distribution from your retirement accounts, you may be able to designate those funds to go to SBT. Please consult a tax professional for details applicable to your situation.

What We Do With Your Information

We provide your name and mailing address to the Buddhist Churches of America. We do not share any information about sangha members with any other individuals or organizations.
