 Celebrating the Lives of Eshinni & Kakushinni
 Wife and daughter of Shinran Shonin, the founder of Shin Buddhism

Thanks to Eshinni's letters, which were found less than a century ago, we know that the Nembutsu guided the life of a real, living person with daily cares such as wondering about her children and keeping the family fed, while living apart from her husband. Her letters are important for the information they contain about Shinran and the difficult life of her era. Kakushinni, his daughter, is respected for her devotion to her father and his doctrine, and for donating land which is now the Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha or head temple of our sect of Buddhism.

How To Support Your Temple

Did you know it takes $140/day to keep the doors open at the Spokane Buddhist Temple?

You can donate in person at the Temple on Sunday (check, cash, card), by mailing a check to the Temple, setting up a monthly BillPay donation through your bank, or by donating on our website.

Memberships start at $25/month/person, although you do not have to be a member to donate.
